Regulations:

- Two shuttles will be provided for finals. RSL shuttles will be sold for $1.50 per shuttle.
- We are committed to running an organized and on-time event. Accordingly, a 10-minute default rule will be strictly enforced. (We have defaulted seeded players in the past). Players must be playing within ten minutes of the calling of their match.
- Senior players are those who are 40 years or older on or before Dec 8, 2007.
- Both players in a doubles team must submit separate entry forms.
- Fees will only be refunded when an event is canceled due to insufficient entry.
- In addition to seeding players based on 1) USAB ranking 2) MBA ranking 3) tournament results and finally 4) directors discretion. We will form brackets taking club and geographic information into account, so please fill out all of the registration form.
- Due to the university policy, no one under the age 18 may participate. However, any age spectator is welcome.

Notes:

- Participants can not play in events run at the same time (see above), please register for events accordingly. Email us if you have questions.
- In the event that a competition held on Saturday is not completed by the end of the day, remaining matches will be played on Sunday.
- Free parking is available in UW parking lot 62 (south of the building--see map below).
- The ID checker at the front doors will let you into the building when you tell them that you are competing in the tournament. Gyms 2 and 4 are located on the second floor.
- If you need a partner in any doubles event, please let us know and we will do our best to find you a partner.
- We would love to have Senior Women's Singles and Doubles but have had trouble filling draws for those events in past years. This year we are scheduling it into the tournament, but we will be forced to cancel any event that has fewer than four entries.
